Grallspice

Meeting of 18 July 1952

Contact Report No. 11

1. [ ] arrived at the operational apartment at 0930 hours as scheduled. Because of other operational commitments, [ ] could not stay as long as he had planned, and the meeting was restricted to a number of basic servicing functions.

2. Grallspice was given the name of the U. S. Property Disposal officer in Vienna, one Lt. Davis and agreed that he would approach Davis within a few days to discuss the possibility of acquiring surplus army property in Vienna or Salzburg for LIMEX.

3. Grallspice stated that he had decided to occupy the apartment located in Vienna VII at Kaiserstrasse 34 on a trial basis. Grallspice said that the apartment consisted of two rooms, an anti-room, bath, and a telephone. The owner of the apartment is a widow who is named THUIL. Her real name, however, is Christine RITTL, nee GRZISNEK, and at one time she was also known as Diana ELLIUGH. THUIL is supposedly an ex-opera singer. She is planning to travel to Germany in the near future, and Grallspice said that he had paid 1,000 schillings for a trial period extending through 25 August 1952.

4. Grallspice returned 4,000 schillings of the 5,000 that had been given to him at the previous meeting.

5. The next meeting was scheduled for 22 July at 0900 hours. [ ] left the operational apartment at 1100 hours.
